

Barjam Gjishti, MSc.
Lecturer
Faculty of Business and Law, Tirana
Business University College, TBU

Barjam Gjishti completed his BA studies in 2011, at the Faculty of Law of the University of Turin (Italy), receiving the academic qualification "Dottore Magistrale in Giurisprudenza".

Barjam Gjishti, is an experienced lecturer with over 10 years of experience. He started his university career as a lecturer of Law in various institutions in the country, including "Justicia" University, "Albanian University" in Tirana, Fier and Berat branches and the Faculty of Law of the University of Tirana. Since 2015, Barjam Gjishti is a member of the academic staff at the Faculty of Business and Law, Tirana Business University College. During the period 2018 - 2023, he held the position of Deputy Dean of the Faculty of Law, at TBU.

In addition to his academic role, Barjam Gjishti is a lawyer and legal consultant, specializing in Administrative, Customs, Tax, Civil and Commercial law.

Barjam Gjishti is an active participant in legal conferences and a published author. Also, he is a member of the Chamber of Advocacy of Albania and the National Chamber of Albanian Mediation, showing his commitment to professional organizations in the legal field.