

Prof. Dr. Elvin MEKA

Dean, Faculty of Business and Law, Tirana Business University College, TBU

Prof. Dr. Elvin Meka is a graduated BA in Finance & Accounting, University of Tirana; Master in Business Administration, University of Tirana & University of Nebraska–Lincoln, Postgraduate degree in Business – Administration, University of Tirana, PhD in Economy, University of Tirana.

Prof. Dr. Elvin Meka has more than 16 years of experience in central and commercial banking, capital and securities markets in Albania, as well as more than 13 years of academic experience as Vice Dean & Head of Department of Finance (2010-2016) and Vice Rector for Academic Process (2016-2017), and Dean of Faculty of Economics, Business and Development, at European University of Tirana (UET) (2019-2023). Prof. Dr. Elvin Meka has worked for various institutions, such as: Bank of Albania (Issuing Department, Monetary Operations Division, Stock Exchange Department) (1994-2002), Tirana Stock Exchange (CEO) (2002-2005), Albanian Association of Banks (Secretary General) (2005-2009), Emporiki Bank – Albania, - Credit Agricole Group (CFO) (2009-2010) and “LUARASI” University College (Administrator) (2017-2018). He has been board member of Mountainous Areas Development Agency – MADA (2007-2009), Business Consultative Council at Ministry of Economy (2007-2009), Chairman of Internal Audit Committee for Public Sector at Ministry of Finance (2014-2016), member of “INSIG” Internal Audit Committee (2015-2019), Editor-in-Chief of “BANKIERI” Magazine, a publication of Albanian Association of Banks (AAB) (2011-2021), and is currently serving as Chairman of “AK Invest” Supervisory Board (2017-) and member of Albanian Securities Exchange – ALSE, Supervisory Board (2018-).

Prof. Dr. Elvin Meka has been part of various European Union’s Erasmus+ programs, as key expert, and has won the Jean Monnet Center of Excellence, 2023-2026 (EUFutur – Enhancing EU Integration process literacy among university students in Western Balkans).