

Irma Shkrepa, MSc.

Lecturer, Faculty of Business and Law, Tirana Business University College, TBU

Irma Shkrepa, MSc., is graduated in Bachelor for Business Management, “Aleksandër Xhuvani” University, Elbasan, and is certified with "Senior Bank Specialist" Post University degree and holds an MBA in "Banking and Corporate Finance" from Kurt Bosch in Sion, Switzerland.

Mrs. Shkrepa started her managerial career at the age of 24 in the banking sector, after a 2-year experience in all positions of the Savings Bank: cashier, customer service, operational manager, finance and procurement, Regional Director. At Raiffeisen Bank, she was part of senior management staff in the positions of: Director of Business Development & Manager of the "Sales Force Effectiveness" Project, Director of the Mortgage Loans Business, Director of Direct Sales at Retailers and Development of international brokerage and referral agents.

In 2010 she assumed the role of Chief Executive Director of NOA; at the same time was leader of the Phenix project for the construction of the hybrid financial business model with the assistance of GE Money Bank executives and in 2019 she headed the leasing company Mogo Albania, based in Riga. She has managed the Gruppo API franchise company for the Balkans, Retail Director in NEPUN. Mrs. Shkrepa heads the International Institute for Banking and Insurance IFIBI, in the role of Master Trainer, Loss adjuster and Consultant for international companies such as BFC, Lloyds, Munich-re, Marsh Broker, Uniqa-re etc.

Mrs. Shkrepa has also played the role of Senior Advisor on the Cabinet of the Minister of Finance and Economy and the Agency for co-governance, at the Prime Minister Office, as well as being Expert in the Financial Sector at Deutsche Spakassenstiftung fur International Kooperation.

Currently, she is a lecturer at Tirana Business University College and is licensed by Raiffeisen International Academy as a "Trainer" that certifies her skills to transmit knowledge in general and sales in particular; GIZ SANECA and ASPA for the training of Chapter 9 of the EU Acquis, the American Embassy as trainer of trainers.