

Attn. Lorenc Gordani, PhD

Faculty of Business and Law, Tirana Business University College, TBU

Lorenc Gordani is the Head of the Department of Law at the Faculty of Business and Law at Tirana Business University College (TBU). He advises on high-level projects on policy, legal framework, regulatory, and energy infrastructure in Albania.

His university studies (Laurea Magistrale at Università degli Studi di Torino) and Doctorate of Philosophy in Public Law (Università degli Studi di Pavia), as well as further education level have taken place in Italy (Postgraduate Diploma in International Sciences and Diplomacy, Diploma in Advanced European Studies (DASE) European College of Parma, etc.), Placement, Université de Nantes France, Leuphana Universität Lüneburg Germany, as well as other major centres in Europe.

Following his university studies, the leading professional activities of Attn. Gordani have continued in various national and international environments, with academic lecturing, training in multiple formats, and applied research, as well as for international organizations and public authorities or foreign and domestic companies, through strategic consultancy, institutional capacity building, etc.

Attn. Gordani's key activities have focused on implementing the EU legal framework in Albania and public policies related to industry and interest groups, international institutions, and public authorities. Extensive action for about 20 years, followed to promote issues related to sustainable growth in Albania, accompanied by the publication of an extensive bibliography, continued participation as an analyst in the media, speaker at many international conferences, etc.