

Dr. Redvin Marku

Lecturer, Faculty of Business and Law, Tirana Business University College, TBU

Dr. Redvin Marku is graduated in BA in Finance-Accounting, University of Tirana; Master in Finance, University of Tirana, Doctor of Science in Economics, University of Tirana.

Dr. Marku has more than 13 years of experience in teaching at the university level, as well as the same number of years of professional experience in the Albanian fiscal system, in various private and public institutions, in matters related to traders and trade associations, etc. He has published many scientific articles in well-known scientific journals, both domestically and abroad.

His focus of professional expertise is in the field of accounting and finance of commercial companies. Since 2008 he is engaged in fiscal and accounting consultancy, as well as in drafting and advising about current fiscal legislation in Albania. He has attended various working groups for drafting of fiscal policies, as well as an advisor to the Association of Small and Medium Businesses in Albania. His various work experiences in Albanian commercial companies include: Posta Shqiptare sh.a., as well as Mogo Albania sh.a., in managerial positions. He is founder and manager of "Redmark" fiscal and accounting consulting studio, with focus on small and medium enterprises. He is a trainer in various activities organized by NGOs and various organizations, focusing on financial reporting and drafting business plans for Start Up businesses. He holds the title of Chartered Accountant and Certified Internal Auditor.