

Sidorela Marini, MSc

Lecturer, Faculty of Business and Law
Tirana Business University College, TBU

Sidorela Marini is currently a lecturer at the Faculty of Business and Law at Tirana Business University College. With extensive experience in banking, finance, and microfinance, Ms. Marini has demonstrated her abilities in management, finance, and auditing roles. Her experience in auditing attests to a high level of expertise in adhering to auditing standards and regulations within financial environments.

Since 2018, Ms. Marini has been part of the academic staff at Tirana Business University College. Her commitment to bridging the gap between theory and practice has empowered students to cultivate a deep understanding of academic materials and apply them in real-world business scenarios.

Ms. Marini is dedicated to her professional growth and has continuously invested in developing her skills. She holds the title of Tax Expert and has completed specialized training in business communication. Furthermore, she has enriched her teaching abilities through training at reputable institutions such as Danubius University in Romania and Staffordshire University in the United Kingdom.

Active participation in national and international training programs ensures that Ms. Marini's knowledge remains current and relevant, positively contributing to her role as an educator at Tirana Business University College. Her diverse expertise and commitment to continuous development make her a valuable asset to both students and the academic institution.