

Prof. Dr. Vasilika Kume

Rector

Tirana Business University College

Vasilika Kume has been engaged in teaching at the Faculty of Economics since 1986. During the period 1986-1991, she pursued postgraduate studies in the field of Management. In 1998, she was awarded the title of “Associate Professor,” and in 2001, she earned the title of “Professor.” From 1998 to 2012, she served as the Executive Director of the Master’s Program at the Faculty of Economics.

Vasilika Kume is a member of several boards, including editorial and scientific boards in international journals. She is the author of over 40 scientific articles and has participated in numerous conferences both in Albania and abroad. She is also the author of several academic textbooks published both locally and internationally.

Vasilika has been engaged as a part-time lecturer at several universities abroad, including Kosovo, North Macedonia, and as a visiting professor at Worms University. For several years, she has taught the course “Strategic Management” for IMBA students at Worms University in Germany.

Vasilika Kume has been invited as a trainer by several institutions and private companies in Problem Solving, Leadership, Change Management, Business Strategy, and has been involved in various projects both within Albania and abroad. She has supervised several doctoral students, both domestically and internationally (North Macedonia, Kosovo).

Her research fields include: Strategic Management, Strategic Planning in Public and Non-Profit Organizations, Time Management, Business Planning, Managerial Decision-Making, and Urban Waste Management.

Courses: Strategic Management, Managerial Decision-Making, Advanced Strategic Management, for both undergraduate and graduate levels.