

Prof. Asoc. Rezart Dibra

Lecturer

Faculty of Business and law

Tirana Business University College

Prof. Asoc. Rezart Dibra is a lecturer in the field of management. He holds degrees from the Faculty of Economics and the Faculty of Law. He also completed his Second-Level Master's studies at the Faculty of Economics, University of Tirana, in collaboration with the University of Nebraska. He has passed various postgraduate exams and qualification courses, covering fields such as management, finance, accounting, banking, and law. Notably, he completed a one-year course for senior Finance-Banking specialists at the Faculty of Economics, a qualification at the master's level, followed by a Ph.D. in management.

Prof. Asoc. Rezart Dibra has earned the right to practice free professions such as "Real Estate Broker," "Certified Accountant," and "Lawyer." He has worked in various state and private institutions, as well as in private higher education institutions, where he served as a lecturer and department head. He has participated in training, seminars, and conferences both domestically and internationally. As a trainer, he has delivered specialized modules in courses in the fields of finance, management, and law.

Prof. Asoc. Rezart Dibra has published in various scientific journals, both domestically and internationally, and has authored materials for student use. He has participated as an author/co-author in scientific presentations at national and international conferences and has been part of the scientific organizational committees and editorial boards of several of them. He is also an editorial member/reviewer in international conferences and journals.