

Megi Ajazi, MSc

Lecturer,
Faculty of Business and Law, Tirana
Business University College, TBU

With over six years of professional experience in management, finance, and operations, Megi Ajazi is part of the academic staff at Tirana Business University College, bringing a dynamic and results-oriented perspective to her role.

She completed her Bachelor's studies in Business Administration, Marketing profile at TBU and holds an MSc in Risk Management. Alongside her academic career, Megi serves as the Coordinator of Tirana East Gate (TEG), Albania's largest shopping mall, where she leads diverse teams and drives high-impact business initiatives.

Throughout her career, she has developed expertise in strategic planning, data-driven decision-making, and cross-functional team leadership. Her strong communication, analytical, and organizational skills are now directed toward enriching students' academic experience by connecting theory with real-world business practice.

Committed to continuous professional growth, she actively participates in training and development programs to stay aligned with industry advancements.

Driven by her passion for education, Megi aims to inspire students to think critically, lead confidently, and adapt successfully within the ever-evolving business landscape.